ORDER

This matter came before the Court on the Joint Motion of Petitioning Creditors for Allowance and Payment of Administrative Fees and Expenses (Doc. No. 1212) filed by the Petitioning Creditors American Bank of St. Paul, Tatonka Capital Corporation, Integra Bank, N.A. ("Integra"), and First National Bank & Trust pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Sections 503(b)(3) and 503(b)(4). A hearing was held on July 16, 2008 at which the Chapter 11 Trustee, counsel for the Chapter 11 Trustee, counsel for Integra, counsel for the Office of the United States Trustee, and various other parties in interest appeared. The applicants filed post-hearing summaries of their applications (Doc. No. 1385) pursuant to the Court's directive.

Integra requests an administrative expense award of $237,409.99 for reimbursement of fees of $221,747.00 and costs of $15,662.99 paid to its forensic accountant and legal counsel in the following manner: (A) $66,499.62, consisting of fees of $60,082.50 and costs of $6,417.12, paid to the forensic accounting and financial advisory firm of J.H. Cohn LLP; and (B) $170,910.37, consisting of fees of $161,664.50 and costs of $9,245.87, paid to the law firm of McGuire Woods LLP. The Application reflects fees and costs incurred in connection with: (i) the fraud investigation and related involuntary bankruptcy petitions filed against Pearlman and related entities; (ii) the appointment of the Chapter 11 Trustee in the related bankruptcy cases; and (iii) the transition of the Pearlman and related bankruptcy estates to the Chapter 11 Trustee and the formation of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors.

J.H. Cohn LLP provided billing records reflecting fees and costs incurred during the period January 17, 2007 through March 12, 2007 (Doc. No. 1212, Exh. 4). J.H. Cohn LLP also provided a summary of invoices reflecting 135.4 hours billed at hourly rates ranging from $230.00 to $575.00, with a blended hourly rate of $443.74. The documentation does not delineate whether any of the rates constitute paraprofessional rates.

McGuire Woods LLP provided redacted billing records reflecting fees and costs incurred during the period January 2, 2007 through May 14, 2007 (Doc. No. 1212, Exh. 5). McGuire Woods LLP also provided a summary of redacted invoices reflecting a total of 381.5 hours billed at hourly rates ranging from $120.00 to $550.00, with a blended hourly rate of $423.76. The documentation does not delineate whether any of the rates constitute paraprofessional rates.

After consideration of the First Colonial and Johnson factors,¹ Integra is due an interim award of fees of $85,000.00 and costs of $15,662.99, consisting of: (A) reimbursement of fees of $25,000.00 and costs of $6,417.12 paid to J.H. Cohn LLP; and (B) reimbursement of fees of $60,000.00 and costs of $9,245.87 paid to McGuire Woods LLP.

¹ The reasonableness of attorney's fees and costs is determined through an examination of the criteria enunciated by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in In the Matter of First Colonial Corp. of Am., 544 F.2d 1291 (5th Cir. 1977) and Johnson v. The twelve factors are: (1) the time and labor required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved; (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to acceptance of the case; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances; (8) the amount involved and the results obtained; (9) the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorneys; (10) the "undesirability" of the case; (11) the nature and the length of the professional relationship with the client; (12) awards in similar cases.
