ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER REGARDING BANKRUPTCY NOTICING CENTER SERVICE INTERRUPTION AND EXTENDING DEADLINES

On October 9, 2026, the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (the “BNC”) advised of a nationwide disruption of service, which prevents the transmission of certain notices required in bankruptcy cases and proceedings. The Court finds that these circumstances constitute good cause for relief under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006.

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED:

1. Effective immediately, the Court’s deadlines for service of documents are hereby extended under Rule 9006(b)(1).
2. No party shall be prejudiced by a failure to respond to a notice that was not served as a result of the BNC service interruption, subject to applicable law and further order of the Court.

3. Upon request of a party in interest, or on its own initiative where permitted by law, the Court may extend or reset other deadlines or continue hearings as necessary to address the interruption. Parties may request relief by written motion or orally at a previously scheduled hearing. Parties should confer when practicable and advise the Court whether the requested relief is agreed upon or opposed. All scheduled hearings shall proceed unless the Court orders otherwise.

4. This Order shall remain in effect until further order of the Court.

DATED: October 13, 2026.

Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge
