Because of Hurricane Irma, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida was closed on September 8, 11, and 12, 2017, making the offices of the Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida inaccessible on those dates.

Rule 9006(a)(3)(A), Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, provides in part:

Rule 9006. Computing and Extending Time

(a)(3) Inaccessibility of the Clerk's Office. Unless the court orders otherwise, if the clerk's office is inaccessible:

(A) on the last day for filing under Rule 9006(a)(1), then the time for filing is extended to the first accessible day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday;...(Emphasis supplied.)

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that because of the closing of the offices of the Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida on September 8, 11, and 12, 2017, and the resulting inaccessibility of the Clerk's Office on those dates, time periods for cases pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida are extended in accordance with Rule 9006(a)(3), Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

DATED: September 13, 2017.
